Carrie Belsky Appointed to Milwaukee County Commission for Persons with Disabilities

MILWAUKEE, WI, (May 27, 2026)—Milwaukee County has appointed Carrie Belsky to the Commission for Persons with Disabilities. Belsky is the Associate Vice President of Employment, Home & Community Based Services at Centers for Independence (CFI), a leader in supporting people with disabilities and behavioral health needs through innovative, person-centered programs.

With more than 30 years of experience, Belsky is deeply committed to advancing employment and community inclusion for people with disabilities. At CFI, she leads programs that expand access to jobs and support greater independence through person-centered services.

Throughout her career, Belsky has focused on building programs and partnerships that increase opportunity and support self-determination. Her work emphasizes practical solutions that help individuals participate more fully in the community. Belsky brings a thoughtful, collaborative and outcomes-driven perspective to her two-year term with the commission, which promotes independence of people with disabilities by addressing barriers, expanding access and advising county leaders on key issues affecting residents.

"I am confident the commission will benefit from her expertise, leadership and deep commitment to inclusive communities," said Milwaukee County Executive David Crowley in the commission's official announcement.

"My work is rooted in the belief that people with disabilities deserve equitable access to opportunity, the power of choice and self-determination, and full inclusion within their communities," said Belsky. "I'm honored to contribute to the important work of the commission in advancing these priorities."
